VISITING PRIESTS

This week-end we are delighted to welcome Fr. David Lashbrooke, who, like myself, is a priest of The Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham.

Fr. David has travelled up from the West Country. He was behind the project to buy the Methodist church in Chelston, Torquay, for use by The Ordinariate, which has now happened.

He is the son of an Anglican clergyman and himself served as a priest in the Church of England for 18 years.

Thank you for coming all this way to us, Father!

If anyone wishes to know more about the Ordinariate, visit our website (address on this page) and look under 'From the Priest'.

PARISH PILGRIMAGE TO WALSINGHAM October 22nd – 24th, 2019

Quite a few have shown interest in joining our Parish Pilgrimage. I have been in touch with Elmham House, which will provide our accommodation, and I have reserved rooms for two nights, Tuesday 22nd and Wednesday 23rd October. I have purposely gone for dates during autumn half term. Arrival mid pm 22nd. Leave after breakfast 24th.

30 beds have been booked, including 6 first floor twin ensuite rooms. The rest are a mix of singles/twins. We may be joined by some from St. Catharine's Chipping Campden. In due course I will provide an itinerary, which will include visits to the Anglican and Orthodox shrines, as well as our own; time for the Sacraments, of course, opportunity to walk the Holy Mile and free time/optional visit to the sea. We will have a celebratory dinner on the second evening. Deposit £20 pp. A list will go up when I am back.
