A very Happy and Holy Christmas from Fr. Stephen

On the other side of this 'Christmas Card' you will find the Masses for the rest of the Christmas Octave, and for January.

A warm welcome from all of us in the Parish to visitors over the Christmas period or to those who may be new arrivals in the Parish.

Please contact Fr. Stephen (sulharcomb@aol.com; mobile 07836 384932) if you would like to speak to me about BAPTISMS, HOME VISITS TO THE SICK, (including bringing Holy Communion and The Sacrament of the Sick to the housebound), WEDDINGS, FUNERALS, SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION, FIRST COMMUNIONS, CONFIRMATION or BLESSING OF HOUSES (subject to Covid restrictions at the time), or if you want to enquire about BECOMING A CATHOLIC.

Many thanks to all who took part in the Ecumenical Carol Service at Chastleton on Sunday 19th December: The Musicians, the Readers, those who acted in the Tableau, and those who came to support. There was a marvellous turnout on a dark and cold night.

Thank you to everyone who has helped decorate the Church for the Christmas Festival. Thank you to our Organist Catherine Inman, to all our Servers who have been and will be working so hard at the altar. Thank you to those who have given me cards and presents and for your generosity. Finally, Many congratulations to our parishioners Graham and Helene Williams, who were married during the Nuptial Mass in Church three days before Christmas.
